DUAS QUINTAS

Red 1992

["A balanced wine."]

THE WINE

The Duas Quintas red is a wine from the Upper Douro region, originating from the Quinta de Ervamoira (at 150 meters altitude) and the Quinta de Bons Ares (at 600 meters altitude) and is prepared from traditional grape varieties which exhibit the potential of this region.

THE YEAR

The 1992 vintage had a very dry winter and a very hot summer. The heavy rains of August saved the vintage providing good conditions for the ripeness of the grapes. In September/October, during the harvest, the weather was cooler which was very positive. These conditions resulted in a very small grape size, and consequently in a small production.
